TWO YOUNG CROOKS BEGIN JAIL CAREERS

Each Given Second Term
For Larceny in the Second Degree.

CALLING OF CALENDAR JURY WAIVED CASES

ATTORNEYS ARE WARNED THAT CASES WILL BE DISMISSED IF NOT READY FOR TRIAL AT TIME SET.

Two young crooks were brought up for sentence before Judge Gear when court opened at 9:45 this morning. Deputy Attorney General Cathcart appeared for the Territory, while the prisoners answered for themselves through the Porto Rican interpreter. Jose Reveira had already this term been sentenced to the maximum of two years at hard labor for larceny in the second degree, his offense having been hardly distinguishable from burglary. The second indictment to which he pleaded guilty was for sneak thieving at night in the house of S. F. Chillingworth, attorney. His sentence was imprisonment at hard labor for one year beginning at the expiration of the former sentence.

Ortiz, the next culprit, was indicted for larceny in the first degree. The prosecution accepted his plea of guilty in the second degree, whereupon he was sentenced to the maximum. Now he came up on a plea of guilty to another indictment for larceny in the second degree for stealing a watch. The court sentenced him to imprisonment at hard labor for one year beginning at the expiration of the former sentence.

In answer to the usual question, each prisoner had said he had nothing to say why sentence should not be pronounced.

Judge Gear proceeded with the calling of jury-waived civil cases, saying this was the only kind of suits that could be heard the remainder of this term and the special term. On receiving the answer, "Ready," to the first case, the court stated that any so marked if not ready when called for trial would be dismissed.

Judge Robinson is hearing Ahlo vs. Kaneohe Ranch Company.

In the Kaneohe Ranch Co. matter, the temporary injunction against the company was dissolved, with leave to plaintiff to make application later for a restraining order.

Judge Robinson, after hearing evidence, ordered the filing of briefs in Magoon vs. Chin Kee Gnuu et al., the case in which the plaintiff claims a lease was made inadvertently at an unduly low figure for the first two years. Magoon & Lightfoot for plaintiff; F. M. Brooks for defendant.

After calling the calendar, Judge Gear took up the Palaw Development Co. matter, W. F. C. Hanson, plaintiff, again took the stand.

Judge Gear fined Kaona $75 without costs for larceny in the second degree, in taking two bags of oats from the Union Feed Co.

MUST SHAVE HEADS.

Yesterday afternoon, the dispute over the man who made the only hit for the Kamehameha in the game of Saturday last waxed so warm that it was finally decided to send a committee to see Lorin Andrews, the official scorer, and ascertain once for all who really did perform the feat, the contesting sides in the meantime having decided to abide by this official's decision. The committee returned to the contesting sides with the news that Lemon had done the trick in the ninth inning. The result of this is that as soon as the season's games are over Barney Joy and Sam Leslie, pitcher and first baseman, respectively, for the H. A. C. team, will have to shave their heads clean. Joy will go into the country to grow another crop. Leslie is thinking of taking another trip to Maui.

MARU'S TRIP HERE

The Japanese steamship Hongkong Maru arrived in port yesterday from the Orient. She left Hongkong August 6, via Macao the 6th, Shanghai the 9th, Nagasaki the 11th, Kobe the 13th and Yokohama the 15th. She had an uneventful trip with some rough weather and brought 840 tons of freight for this port. In her stowage she had 59 Japanese and 38 Chinese for Honolulu.

Among the passengers for Honolulu are three Russian families, who intend to locate here. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver will remain over in this city. Mr. Weaver is the western manager of the Studebaker Carriage Manufacturing Company and is returning from an extensive tour of the Orient. On his way out, Mr. Weaver made quite a long stay here.

Among the through passengers are D. G. Fairchild and Barbour Lathrop, agricultural experts, who have made an extensive tour of the Orient, Ceylon, India, etc. J. Pitt is an inspector of the Royal Navy on his way home to England. Lieut. Filippo Vanzini of the Italian Navy is returning to Italy on sick leave, he having been wounded in the neck before Tientsin, at which place he spent several months in the hospital. Chan Ying Wah is a prominent merchant of San Francisco, being a member of the advisory board of the big Six Companies in that city.

The Maru left for San Francisco at 8 o'clock this morning.

IN THE FEDERAL COURT

Henry E. Highton, the veteran San Francisco attorney, was admitted to practice in the United States District Court this morning.

W. L. Whitney was allowed an attorney's fee of $75 in the A. E. Nichols bankruptcy case. Referee W. T. Rawlins was asked if there were any objections. He did not know of any, but said the assets were only about a thousand dollars. Judge Estee observed that there might have been even less were it not for the services of the attorney. As a rule, the court did not allow attorney's fees in bankruptcy until the settlement of the estate, but if the fee in this case were not paid now there might be nothing left to pay it later.

After adjourning court for the day, Judge Estee reminded members of the bar and press of the reception to Hon. John M. Thurston at the opening of court tomorrow morning.

KILL THE SNAKE.

At the meeting of the executive committee of the Home Rule Republican party held on Thursday, the 21st inst., the question of the choice of candidates for the Legislature from this island came up for discussion. Kalaokalani took the floor very quickly and said that the matter of choosing candidates should be left to him, as he had been given the power to do this work.

Wonder of wonders! The power of choosing candidates is taken out of the hands of the delegates assembled in convention and put into his hands. Verily, Kalaokalani, your high-handedness is greater than that of Dole. What good is to be derived from such leaders as this? Let us kill the snake,—Ke Alakai.

A PAPER ASKS QUESTIONS.

In the issue of "Ke Alakai," the Hui Kuokoa paper, of yesterday, is contained the following with reference to the county and municipal government bills of the Home Rule party at the last session of the Legislature:

We wish to lay these questions before the "Home Rule":
To whom was the county bill given before the last Legislature sat?
Where did this bill go wandering about until it was finally found by Emmelhuth in the hands of George Markham?

To whom was the municipality bill given for introduction in the Senate?
Also, why was this bill not introduced until the thirtieth day of the sitting of the Legislature?

SALTPETRE CARGO OF ADDENDA WAS AFIRE TODAY

At 10:20 this forenoon the citizens of this city were again startled by the blowing of the fire whistle. The scene of the conflagration was the American barkentine Addenda, lying at the railroad wharf.

The alarm was sent in from box 33 at the junction of King and Boreana streets. The fire engines and the police started immediately for the scene, but owing to the distance which the box was from the place of the fire, both departments were delayed, because they could not, upon their arrival at the box, ascertain immediately where the fire was.

For some time there has been been but friendly rivalry between the police and the fire department as to which arrives first at the scene of a fire. The police won the race today by several minutes. A few seconds after the gong was sounded the horses were in the harness of the patrol wagon and Driver Charles Galt sent his animals dashing through the streets at a tremendous rate of speed. Despite the fact that the streets were crowded and road repairs were going on where he had to pass, he handled the reins with rare skill.

The fire department arrived on the wharf a few minutes later, having also made splendid time. Upon the arrival of the police the railroad fire engine was already on the spot and the men busily engaged in coupling the lengths of hose together.

On the deck of the schooner all was confusion. Stevedores and sailors were busy with the hatches, from which clouds of grayish smoke were issuing.

The fire was in the cargo of salt-petre, of which the Addenda brought a full load from Iquique, Chile, last week. Her hold was filled with bags containing this material.

The stevedores had been working at taking the saltpetre out of the forecastle during the morning. At about 10:15, just when they had gotten pretty well down in the hold, they discovered that the stuff aft of them, which was lying under the main hatch, was on fire, and the alarm was given.

The chemical engine's hose, manipulated by "Spider" Jackson, was the first put in action. The covering of the main hatch was torn off and the stream played in the bags, which at this place came close up to the deck. Later on several lengths of hose were brought up and put to work in both the fore and main hatches.

Chief Thurston was on the deck and directed the work. Despite the distance which the wharf is from the center of the city, an immense crowd congregated in a very short time, but the police, under Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth, had the people well in hand.

In the midst of the confusion the tug Fearless suddenly steamed up. She carries a great deal of hose and has such powerful pumps that she is an excellent fire-fighter. Some one cut the stern line which held the Addenda to the wharf to give the Fearless room to get alongside, the consequence being that the vessel swung quite a bit from the wharf, hampering the firemen to some extent.

The tug, however, was skillfully manipulated by Captain Olsen and was soon on the starboard side of the Addenda. Her master immediately had his men aboard the barkentine with their hose but they met with an unexpected set-back in the shape of Chief Thurston who ordered the men back with the hose.

Captain Olsen boarded the Addenda and insisted to the chief that he be allowed to assist. The dispute waxed very warm until the police finally had to step in, whereupon the firemen, bundled the Fearless' hose back on the tug.

Chief Thurston states that his reason for not allowing the Fearless to assist was that the Fire Department had the fire under control and could manage it without the aid of any private concern which would charge the vessel's owners for the services rendered by them.

When the worst of the fire had been put out, the stevedores began packing out the fertilizer from the top of the hatches to enable the firemen to get at the fire below and after about three-quarters of an hour the danger was over.

The fire is supposed by the officers of the vessel to have started from a spark from the donkey engine which was employed in discharging the sacks from the fore hatch.

It is not yet known how much the cargo of the Addenda was damaged. Very little harm was done by the fire but the water which was poured on the saltpetre will dissolve large amounts which will thus be wasted. The stuff that remains will be put in such shape by the water that it will be hard to handle but its actual value as fertilizer will not otherwise depreciate.

The cargo was insured by a company in San Francisco.

KONA FARMING LANDS

TO BE OPENED FOR AMERICAN FARMERS

COMMISSIONER BOYD HAS AGOOD
OPINION OF THE TRACT AFF-ER A PERSONAL IN-SPECTION.

Edward S. Boyd, Commissioner of Public Lands, returned to town in the steamer W. C. Hall this morning. He went to South Kona especially to inspect the Papa-alika lands, which are proposed to be opened up for settlement by American farmers expected soon to come out to the islands.

Franz Buchholz, who has made a success of miscellaneous farming in Kona, was the promoter of this immigration scheme from which great results are anticipated. There will be about half a dozen applicants for farms in the first instance.

Commissioner Boyd describes the land as pastoral at present. It is heavily forested in parts. No surface water appears, but Mr. Boyd is of opinion the essential element may be struck by prospecting, either in tunnels or borers, or both. There is a precipitation in the watershed of the lands which ought to ensure the existence of subterranean reservoirs. Part of the problem is to find the ancient streams that were buried by lava flows. So porous are the upper strata that water on falling sinks immediately into the ground.

The topography is of rolling character, gradually rising from the elevation of 900 to that of 2,100 feet. Oleomano is the nearest village to the tract, while its most convenient seaport landing is Hoopuloa.

There is an area of 8,000 acres in the Papa-alika tract. The method of its disposal in desirable sizes of farms to the prospective settlers is yet to be decided. Probably it will be right of purchase leases for twenty-one years. These make it feasible for the lessee to obtain fee simple titles at the end of three years if 25 per cent of the allotment in each case has been brought under cultivation.

KAUAI BANKRUPTCY.

A petition in involuntary bankruptcy was filed today against Tan Wo, a storekeeper at Hanalei. The petitioners and their respective claims are as follows: Von Hamm-Young Co., Ltd., $71.18; H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., $453.24; L. K. Kerr & Co., Ltd., $116.58. It is alleged that within four months of the filing of the petition the respondent committed an act of bankruptcy in making a general assignment for the benefit of his creditors to John D. Willard of Lihue. Deputy Marshal Handy goes to Kauai tonight to take possession of the store.

HOT BASEBALL GAME ON MAUI

Wailuku, Aug. 25.—The game between the Morning Stars and Maui Alerts at Wells' Park yesterday afternoon was won by the former by a score of 13 to 9, but L. R. Crook, captain of the Maui Alerts, will enter a protest to set aside the game.

This being the last game of the season since the Punneues have withdrawn their team from the league, an unusual amount of interest was centered in the contest. It was also the deciding game for the Stars to win the silver cup trophy put up by the league for the champion team of the year. Had the Stars lost, it would have given the Wailuku a chance to play for the championship.

The Stars placed on the diamond its regular players since the opening of the season, while the Alerts went to bat with a team composed of six selected from the Punneues team which had withdrawn from the league. Crook, Boote and Schraeder were the only old members of the Maui Alerts. Of course the other six are also members of the league and they can join any team they please provided they are accepted. Dixon of the Punneues, popularly known as "Red" pitched for the Alerts while Jackson twirled for the Stars.

At the start, Jackson was hit over the field, the Alerts scoring four runs in the first inning and three in the second. At the end of the second inning the Alerts were four ahead and great hopes were entertained of their defeating the Stars. The voters of the Alerts made Wells' Park resound with vociferous cheers.

In the third inning, however, Jackson regained his old-time good form and he allowed the Alerts to make but two runs during the rest of the game. The Alerts played a pretty fair game but it could be plainly seen that they were in every way outclassed by the Stars. Dixon pitched a pretty fair game, striking out many but he was not supported in the field. Of the 15 errors to the credit of the Alerts, seven were made by Boote at shortstop.

The umpires were Capt. C. B. Cottrell and T. M. Church, official umpires, and yesterday's game was the first time their decisions have been called in question. Captain L. R. Crook having filed a formal protest with L. M. Baldwin, president of the Maui Athletic Association. Mr. Crook has nominated Jas. L. Cooke to be one of the board of arbitrators, and Captain Garcia will have to nominate one to represent the Stars while the two thus nominated will select the third. They will form a sort of a superior court in athletic matters and their decision will be only reviewable by the National League.

The line-up was as follows:
Morning Stars—A. Garcia, ss.; J. Garcia, 2b. (captain); A. Jackson, p.; T. Pickard, 1b.; K. Smith, 3b.; Ned Kruger, cf.; Meyer, rf.; J. Ross, lf.; T. Kruger, c.
Alerts—McKinney, c.; Correll, 2b.; Crook, lf., ss. (captain); Walsh, 1b.; Dixon, p.; Boote, ss.; Schraeder, 3b.; Prophet, cf.; Keelan, rf.

Following is the protest filed:
Wailuku, Maui, Aug. 25, 1902.
To L. M. Baldwin, President of Maui Athletic Association.

Mr. President.—In good faith and on behalf of the Maui Alerts, I herewith formally protest the regular scheduled game between the Morning Stars and the Maui Alerts, played under the league schedule of the Maui Athletic Association at Wells' Park, Sunday, Aug. 24, 1902, on the following grounds:

1. That the umpire after having called a strike on the batsman reversed his decision after the said batsman claimed it to be a foul tip; the same being contrary to the rules and regulations and resulting in the scoring of an extra run on the part of the Morning Stars.

2. That after a fair ball having been declared by the umpire on balls and strikes, the batsman was declared out by the umpire on balls and strikes, the batsman was declared out by the umpire on bases for a foul strike.

3. That the umpire on bases exceeded his authority and jurisdiction in calling the batsman out on a foul strike.

4. That by this action of the umpire on bases the score of the Maui Alerts was materially affected.

5. That at no time did the umpire of balls and strikes declare the batter out, and he was only rebuffed by the umpire on bases after having been instructed by his captain to hold his base.

Wherefore, I would ask that a board of appeals as provided in Art. XI, Sec. 1, be commissioned to act, and in conformity with Art. XII, Sec. 1, I name Mr. Jas. L. Cooke as the member of the court of appeals, selected by me.

In making this protest I would say that I do not desire to question the integrity or actions of the umpires, but their interpretation of the rules I do.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) L. R. CROOK,
Captain Maui Alerts.

The standing of the teams in the Maui league is as follows:

Morning Stars... 5 5 1 533
Wailuku... 4 2 2 509
Maui Alerts... 4 0 4 000

A LADIES' NIGHT

All arrangements for the ladies' reception at the Officers' Club this evening have been made and the committee in charge promises that all kinds of a good time will be had by every one who is present. The band will be present and a quintet club will play in between times so that there will be a continual flow of music.

The hall has been very prettily decorated with flags and bunting and there will be plenty of flowers and greens around tonight when the ladies get there. In fact, everything possible is being done by the committee to make the event an enjoyable one for the ladies.

Some playing off of matches was done yesterday afternoon and evening and some of the very best players will be put on tonight in order that the ladies may have a chance to see some good matches.

After the ping pong matches there will be dancing to music by the quintet club. All members of the club have been notified that they will not be restricted to one lady apiece but may take as many as they please. It is also requested by the committee that all those who have played in the present ping pong tournament and have not yet received cards, may secure the same by calling on H. E. Pickett.

The matches set for this afternoon are as follows: George Waterhouse vs. F. H. Armstrong; E. Waterman vs. H. Wilder; Lieut. Davis vs. A. J. Blackman—Wilder match and S. H. Derby the winner of the Waterhouse-Armstrong match.

SOME KAUAI FAILURES

News comes from Kauai that, within a very short space of time, three Oriental firms have failed there and have been closed up. The largest of these is Tan Wo of Hanalei, who has been living on Kauai and conducting a dry goods business for the past fifteen years. He is a very well known Chinaman, is interested in the rice planting business on the Garden side and, until recently, was supposed to be in excellent circumstances financially.

A short time ago Tan Wo was sued by a Portuguese for the recovery of certain money alleged to be due him and a judgment of $300 was rendered in favor of the plaintiff.

This was the beginning of his fall and on Friday last Tan Wo was closed up. On investigating the affairs of the store, it was found that the liabilities were about $1000 and the assets $1000 so that some of the wholesale houses in the city are in for losses.

Kong Kee of Elele has also failed. His liabilities are about $1000 while his assets amount to about $150.

Murata of Kekaha is the only Japanese failure reported. The total amount of liabilities has not yet been learned although it is known to be very large.

TODAY'S LOCAL TEAM.

Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth is having a hard time getting up a team to play against the transport team this afternoon. Nearly all of the boys of the regular H. A. C. team are busy and will be unable to get off. This has made it necessary for Mr. Chillingworth to get together what players he can so that the local team this afternoon will be very much mixed up. The members of the team and John Wise will also be one of the bat wielders. He refused to eat luncheon at the noon hour in order to be better able to run.

With the aggregation of unpracticed players that will be put on the diamond today, the soldiers might possibly win but they certainly could not do so against any of the regularly organized teams of the league although they still seem to feel confident that they can defeat any aggregation the Territory has to offer.

POLITICAL POT IS BOILING UP

All Parties Are Actively
At Work on Coming Campaign.

DEMOCRATS HAVE ADDED TO EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

HUI KUOKOA OUTLOOK ON BIG ISLAND SEEMS VERY BRIGHT.
HOME RULERS OFF FOR HAWAII.

The Home Rulers are still working like Trojans improving the fleeting moments and the nearer election time approaches, the harder they fight. By September 1 every island with the exception of this one will have held its convention and named men to run for both the Senate and House and on the date mentioned the delegates chosen from this island will meet in the city for the purpose of naming men from this island. Among the names for senatorial honors will be that of Edgar Cayless who worked so hard for the interests of his party in Washington. His name is invariably mentioned at every meeting so that whatever natives did not know him are now thoroughly acquainted with him. With this exception, it is understood the Home Rule ticket from this island will be practically the same as it was two years ago.

The Kalaokalanis and other Home Rule speakers who went down the road last week, returned in the morning train and the former with Representative Mossman left for Laupahoehoe in the Claudine, there to meet Delegate Wilcox and with him travel around to Hilo where on either Thursday or Friday will be held the convention of delegates for the nomination of candidates for the Legislature. These speakers held a well attended meeting at Waianae last night. A portion of this party headed by Representative Jesse P. Makainai returned on Sunday and have been working about the city ever since. Last night there was a meeting on School street just minka of Fort which was addressed by Representatives Makainai, Beckley, Moses Nakuna and other speakers. The meeting was not very extensively advertised but notwithstanding this fact, there was quite a large attendance.

A meeting of the Democrats was held in headquarters last night and at that time, the only important business transacted was the increase of the Executive Committee from five to twenty-five members, this being deemed necessary in order that the work of the party may be carried out successfully during the fall campaign.

The Executive Committee now consists of the following: Col. C. J. McCarthy (chairman), S. C. Dwight, S. K. Kaloa, W. C. Wilder, C. L. Rhodes, F. Turrill, E. B. McClanahan, H. A. Juen, Julius Asche, E. R. O'Sullivan, J. W. Edinger, S. W. Spencer, F. R. Harvey, Abraham Fernandez, H. De La Cruz, W. H. Johnson, Prince David Kawanakoa, Chas. Creighton, W. S. Withers, H. J. Mossman and E. H. Hart.

The Democrats are putting in some very hard blows just at the present time and the ultimate result will unquestionably be a coalition with either the Republican or Home Rule party. The whole thing depends on which party will offer the best terms. The way the Democrats feel may be summed up in this speech of a prominent member of the party, today: "I do not want to swallow Wilcox but if it is the decision of the party that this is the
